RHODE ISLAND TAX COLLECTOR'S ASSOCIATION MEETING

President Rosemarie Silva of West Warwick called the meeting of the Rhode Island Tax Collectors Association to order on October 16th at 9:25 am. The meeting was held at Richard's Pub in East Greenwich. There were 47 people in attendance including our guest speakers.

There were no minutes to read or approve as our secretary, Caitlyn Choiniere, is on maternity leave. Congratulants to Caitlyn and her family.

Treasurer's Report – Marcy Alves was unable to attend. However, Mary Lynn Caswell reviewed the report. Charlene Randall made the motion to accept the report as presented. The motion was seconded by Jane Steere and unanimously approved. Here is the report:

Communications – a thank you note for the flowers from former association member Paula Fahlman who retired from Centreville Bank after 17 years.

Legislative – no update

Motor Vehicle – no update. Donna Sullivan the former chair of this committee has retired so we are looking for a new volunteer to head up this group. Contact Rosemarie if you are interested.

Membership – Jane Steere stated that membership renewals will be sent out in November. She has received a few recently and has processed them as 2020 applications.

Education – Chairman Tom Kane was not present but President Silva read the names of those members who took and passed the collector's exam. Their pins and citations will be presented at the next meeting.

President Silva introduced Kelly Renfrow from Wells Fargo who is attending from Iowa.

Dr. Jennifer Slattery from the League of Cities and Towns made a presentation regarding becoming an affiliate member of their organization. The yearly cost is $750 and would be pro-rated as it runs on the fiscal year. If we wanted they would handle the collection of meeting payments, schedule speakers, be our lobbyist when we need legislative advocacy, track legislation for us and help with coordinating conferences to name a few of the services they would offer. Charlene Randall made a motion to join for the remaining of this year on a trial basis. The motion was seconded by Mary Lynn Caswell and unanimously approved.

President Silva announced the retirement of Mary Ann Packer from South Kingstown and introduced the new collector – Valerie Miller.

Charlene Randall thanked President Silva for all her hard work regarding the recent northeast conference held in Maine. Organizing such an event is a lot of hard work and the education was great, the venue was really nice and overall the conference was a great experience.

The meeting stopped for breakfast and then resumed at 10:30 for a Tax Sale presentation by Glenn Andreoni, Kerry Hubert and Julie Accardi from RI Tax Titles.

The 50/50 raffle in the amount of $69.50 went to Erin Jacobs of Narragansett.

Motion to adjourn at 12:15.

Respectfully submitted,

Charlene Randall
